

The Regiment, on this the 4th day of March 2008, have lowered our flags to half-mast to pay our respects to one of our own who has left us.

Mr George William Knox passed away on the 26th of February 2008.

George, a Veteran of WW II served the Canadian Army starting with the Royal Canadian Regiment in 1942 and then joined the Patricia's on 29 May 1944 and stayed with the Regiment until 7 June 1945. George was proud of his Scottish roots, his years of service in the Army, his registered Polled Hereford cattle and his family.

Once a Patricia - Always a Patricia
