

PRINCESS PATRICIA'S CANADIAN
LIGHT INFANTRY REGIMENTAL FUND

ARTICLE ONE – NAME

- 1.1 The official name of the Regiment is Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry, hereinafter referred to as the "Regiment". The authorized abbreviation is "PPCLI".
- 1.2 The official name of the Regiment's non-public funds organization is "Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry Regimental Fund", hereinafter referred to as the "Regimental Fund".
- 1.3 The "Regimental Family" the the term used to describe the three Regimental Entities, namely the serving component, the retired component, and the PPCLI Foundation.

ARTICLE TWO – APPLICATION

- 2.1 The serving component of the Regiment is organized into Regular and Reserve Force Battalions that are established as operational units of the Canadian Armed Forces (CAF). In addition, there are members employed on extra-regimental duties in the CAF headquarters, schools, units and training establishments both within and outside Canada. Finally, members are attached to specific missions or foreign militaries outside of Canada.
- 2.2 The Regimental Fund is the principle medium for the non-public property support to Regimental operations, and is distinct from the non-public funds that support the three Battalions.

ARTICLE THREE – AUTHORITY

- 3.1 A charitable fund was originally established under the authority of the Department of National Defence (DND) Administrative Bulletin 53/1, date 03 February 1953. Upon changes to the Income Tax Act in 1982, an Application for Registration (Reinstatement) was submitted to the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA) dated 22 November 1982. The application was approved by CRA and the charitable fund was reinstated as a charitable organization under the name "Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry Regimental Fund" (the "Regimental Charity"). In 2013, Canadian Forces Moral and Welfare Services (CFMWS) issued a request for the Regiment to submit a request for voluntary revocation of its charitable status to CRA. After protracted discussions, agreement was reached that the Regiment would clearly distance the Regimental Charity from CFMWS operations by changing the name and the composition of the board of directors to ensure that it is arm's length from the CAF. Therefore the name of the Regimental Charity was changed in 2017 from "Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry Regimental Fund" to "Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry Fund", and the composition of the board of directors was amended to ensure that the charity operates at arm's length from the CAF. The Regimental Fund is a non-public property entity that controls the non-public fund activities of the Regiment, specifically the Regimental Warehouse and the PPCLI Museum, and is at arm's length from the Patricia Fund.
- 3.2 The Regimental Fund is not registered with CRA as a charitable organization. However, as a non-public property entity, the Regimental Fund can issue tax receipts for donations of money or property. Said monies or property become the property of Her Majesty the Queen in right of Canada, and may not be disposed of or otherwise alienated without prior approval from the Chief of the Defense Staff of the Canadian Armed Forces.
